Your duty in relation to the questions asked

In arranging your insurance, both we and your insurers will ask a number of questions which you are required to answer. Your insurance is a "consumer insurance contract" for the purposes of the Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012 (the "Consumer Act"). That means it is an insurance wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession. Under the Consumer Act, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurers.

Please note that any information provided to us shall be passed on to the insurers and we will not take any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of such information. Please take reasonable care to answer all the questions asked by your insurers and us, whether through a risk questionnaire or otherwise, honestly, to the best of your knowledge, and provide complete, accurate and relevant details. If you make a misrepresentation to your insurers (whether innocently or otherwise), your insurers may be entitled to impose additional policy terms, or to reduce a claim payment, or even to cancel the policy and refuse all claims. If you make a deliberate or reckless misrepresentation, your insurers may cancel the policy and refuse all claims, and in these circumstances your insurers will be entitled to retain any premium paid by you. You should note that failure to comply with your insurers' request at renewal to confirm or amend particulars you have previously given may amount to misrepresentation which could prejudice your insurance cover in whole or in part.

Your insurance quotation is based on the information you have given us. If any of the information you have provided above changes either prior to inception or during the policy period you must notify us immediately. Updating and/or changing information will not automatically result in a change to your policy cover or the cost of insurance, but failure to notify us may invalidate your policy.
